Committee Reports

•Civic Beautification
One more bill will come for $80 for mulching. HP looks beautiful. Paul Cavicchio has been very generous to the Town and our Garden Club.

•Communications
      Grapevine - No grapevine until September, deadline will be the end of August.

•Community Outreach
There is a sign up for weekly floral displays for the Senior Center for the months of June, July, August, and September. Patti will manage the sign-up sheet.

•Hospitality

•Membership
There are 45 active members, 6 associates, 8 supporting, 1 family.

•Philanthropy

•Programs
All programs are set for in person meetings with the exception of the January program with Maria von Brincken, which is tentatively booked as virtual. All programs are subject to change format based on the health conditions of the community/state. The joint meeting with The Thursday Garden Club is being reinstated and will take place in November. No night meeting for October this year. It was suggested to consider booking events at the Senior Center or the Police Station.

•Publicity
Barbara Fay will work with Lynn Noland to highlight the history of our club in local publications, i.e. Action Unlimited, Sudbury Town Crier.

•Sunshine
A memorial donation or donations will be made in honor of Nalini Goyal to a charity or charities of the family's choice.

Non-Committee Activities
A coordinator is wanted for Garden Treks, to plan trips for members to visit local gardens.

The meeting adjourned at 5:45pm.
